

I pay for my phone line to call who I want, not to have others bothering me at all times of the day or night. I go to bed early and have been disturbed out of a wonderful sleep by somebody calling to sell me windows! If I'm looking for something, I will make the call. Leave Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law alone!